HOW TO EMAIL A TEACHER

Subject Line

Your subject line should be a short summary of your email (2-6 words).

Examples:

"Missing Assignments"
"Technical Difficulties"
"Late Work"

hello

Say Hello

Just like you would in person, say "Hello" first.

Examples:

"Hi [Name]."
"Good morning, Mrs. Gracey,"
"Greetings!"

To: myteacher@myschool.org
Subject: Missing Assignment

Good Morning,

I am emailing you because I have already turned in my book report. However, it still shows that I am missing the assignment in the grade book. Can you tell me if you have received it?

Thank you for checking on this.

Tommy Smith

go.tcea.org/email

Why Are You Emailing?

Tell the teacher why you are emailing them. Include any relevant details.

Examples:

"I am emailing because..."
"I can't find..."
"Can you please help me with..."

End Your Email

Close your email with a simple goodbye.

Examples:

"Thank you for your help."
"Have a nice day."
"See you in class."

Include Your Name

Names are important, including yours!
Let's use it.

After ending your email, do not forget to sign your name.

Gibson Livestock Scholarship Fund

Gibson Livestock is proud to present the Gibson Livestock Scholarship fund for 2022!

Applicants must be passionate about agriculture and entering or currently pursuing an agricultural related program full-time at a Canadian college, university or apprenticeship (trade) institution.

Gibson Livestock will award a scholarship of $1500 to the winning applicant(s) that can demonstrate their passion and potential through a 300-500 word essay describing themselves, their current involvement in Canadian agriculture, community and extracurricular activities, what has inspired them to pursue a career field in agriculture and future goals for themselves in the Canadian Ag sector.

Applicants must also provide

- Two references
- A reference letter
- Transcripts (high school or post-secondary)

Awardees must present a university/college acceptance letter or letter of current enrolment before receiving the funds but may apply before they are accepted at such institution.

DEADLINE: MAY 15th 2022

Applications can be send to cassie@titanlivestock.com

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW

What is this Self-Advocacy workshop and why are we promoting it?

The Saskatchewan Advocate for Children and Youth (SACY) places a significant emphasis on raising awareness about young people's rights. One of our main areas of focus over the coming years is to work with children and youth to encourage the development of self-advocacy skills: to speak up or act to improve their own quality of life, to effect personal change, or to make things more equal or fair. In this workshop we teach young citizens of Saskatchewan to self-advocate, which supports their right to be heard and have their opinions considered when decisions are being made about their lives!

Speak for Yourself* workshop key topics include:

-  Self-Advocacy – What it is and how to use it
-  Know Yourself – Explore your strengths, challenges, needs and much more.
-  Know your Rights and Responsibilities – Learn about Rights, Needs, Wants and Responsibilities and about the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child
-  Effective Communication – Learn about communication approaches, and ways to communicate with professionals to be effective in the self-advocacy process

What does this workshop look like?

- The workshop lasts 2 hours
- We can tailor it to ages 8-16
- It is interactive, positive and fun, with activities, games and group discussion
- Each participant receives their own copy of our Speak for Yourself guide
- SACY staff maintain the confidentiality of any information that they receive during a workshop, unless a specific exception applies
