This week, we would like to acknowledge and appreciate all of our language teachers. Did you know that our school provides education in English, Core French, French Immersion, Cree, and English as an Additional Language? These individuals are so passionate and work hard to build meaningful relationships with their students while sharing their love of languages and bad puns. Thank you for your hard work and dedication!

If you can read this,
thank a teacher.

HOW TO EMAIL A TEACHER

1

Subject Line

Your subject line should be a short summary of your email (2-6 words).

Examples:

"Missing Assignments"
"Technical Difficulties"
"Late Work"

2

hello

Say Hello

Just like you would in person, say "Hello" first.

Examples:

"Hi [Name]."
"Good morning, Mrs. Gracey,"
"Greetings!"

To: myteacher@myschool.org
Subject: Missing Assignment

Good Morning,

I am emailing you because I have already turned in my book report. However, it still shows that I am missing the assignment in the grade book. Can you tell me if you have received it?

Thank you for checking on this.

Tommy Smith

go.tcea.org/email

3

Why Are You Emailing?

Tell the teacher why you are emailing them. Include any relevant details.

Examples:

"I am emailing because..."
"I can't find..."
"Can you please help me with..."

4

End Your Email

Close your email with a simple goodbye.

Examples:

"Thank you for your help."
"Have a nice day."
"See you in class."

5

Include Your Name

Names are important, including yours!
Let's use it.

After ending your email, do not forget to sign your name.
